

SALUTING

OUR TROOPS

~ PAST & PRESENT ~

A WORLD OF THANKS TO

Msgr. Thaddeus F. Malanowski

1922 - Born in Stamford, Connecticut

1947 - Ordained a Roman Catholic Priest

1949 - Commissioned an officer in the United States Army

1973 - Given the title "Monsignor" by Pope Paul VI

1974 - Named Deputy Chief of Army Chaplains, with the rank of Brigadier General

2020 - Entered into Eternal Life

May he rest in peace, knowing that he will never be forgotten

Hands Touching Hearts is a global outreach effort that gives Americans of all ages the opportunity to decorate handcrafted thank-you gifts for United States military personnel. The program was originated by Ann M. Cosgrove, a graphic artist in Connecticut. To learn more, visit www.Anns.work.

Hands Touching Hearts is a global outreach effort that gives Americans of all ages the opportunity to decorate handcrafted thank-you gifts for United States military personnel.
Ann M. Cosgrove, program originator. All rights reserved.